To Sam, Joseph and all at Georges Ellis & Co

Re: Our sale of 2 Moore St, Strathfield

We would like to express our sincere thanks for your handling of the recent sale of our property.

As you were aware we had our property listed with another local agent prior to your involvement. The whole process with this agent was stressful, unprofessional and ultimately unsuccessful.

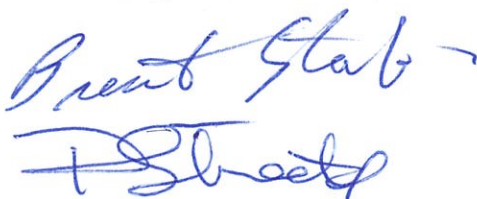

The difference in performance with your agency could not have been more pronounced. We particularly appreciated your honesty and transparency throughout the entire sales process.

Your initial estimates of property value were realistic, the advertising, signage and house photographs were professionally done, we were kept informed of campaign progress throughout and all your dealings with us were handled in the most professional manner.

As you know we accepted an offer for our property just prior to auction. The negotiation process between ourselves, Sam and the subsequent buyers turned what could have been a stressful situation into a successful outcome for all parties.

We would have no hesitation in recommending Sam, Joseph and all at Georges Ellis & Co to anyone looking to sell their property and have in fact already done so.

Kind Regards
