20. GST general

20.1 General

- (a) Words and phrases used in this General Condition and in the GST Conditions of Sale have the same meaning as in the GST Act, unless the context otherwise requires.
- (b) If the sale of the Property constitutes a mixed supply (for example, the sale is input taxed in part) then the Vendor must reasonably determine the consideration for the sale of each part, and in relation to each part, these General Conditions will apply as if the Property being supplied is that part only.

20.2 Vendor not registered for GST

If the GST Conditions of Sale provide that the Vendor is not registered or required to be registered for GST, the Vendor warrants this to be true.

20.3 Sale is input taxed

If the GST Conditions of Sale provide that the sale of the Property is the supply of residential premises that is input taxed:

- (a) the Vendor warrants the residential premises are not 'commercial residential premises' or 'new residential premises'; and
- (b) the Purchaser warrants that the Property is to be used predominantly for residential accommodation.

20.4 Going concern

- (a) If the GST Conditions of Sale provide that the sale of the Property is the supply of a going concern:
 - (i) the Purchaser warrants that it is registered or required to be registered for GST, and will (if requested) provide evidence to that effect to the reasonable satisfaction of the Vendor at Settlement;
 - (ii) the Vendor warrants that it will carry on the enterprise to which the sale of the Property relates until Settlement; and
 - (iii) the Vendor and Purchaser agree to treat the sale of the Property as the supply of a going concern.
- (b) For the avoidance of doubt, if the Purchaser assigns this Contract at any time prior to Settlement, the assignee, as a condition of the assignment, is bound by the warranties and agreement made by the Purchaser in this General Condition.

20.5 Margin scheme

If the GST Conditions of Sale provide that the sale of the Property is a taxable supply and the margin scheme will apply to the sale of the Property:

- (a) the Vendor warrants that the Property was not acquired through a taxable supply in which the margin scheme did not apply;
- (b) if applicable, the Vendor must obtain, at the Vendor's cost, a valuation of the Property which complies with section 75-10(3) of the GST Act, and provide that valuation to the Purchaser not less than five Business Days prior to Settlement;
- (c) if the parties agree that the margin will be included in the 'GST payable' at Item 5 once determined, the Purchaser must pay to the Vendor an additional amount on account of GST equal to 10% of the margin at Settlement, and the parties agree that this Contract is binding on both parties where it is fully executed before the 'GST payable' amount is determined; and
- (d) the Vendor must choose to apply the margin scheme to the sale of the Property in completing its Business Activity Statement.

20.6 Taxable supply

If the GST Conditions of Sale provide that the sale of the Property is a taxable supply and the margin scheme does not apply to the sale of the Property:

- (a) the Purchaser must pay to the Vendor an additional amount on account of GST equal to the consideration for the sale of the Property multiplied by the GST rate applicable; and
- (b) the Vendor must provide to the Purchaser a tax invoice in relation to the sale of the Property at Settlement.

 - (ii) in the event that:
 - A. the Purchaser is not registered for GST and the Purchase Price is increased by the Vendor's GST Notice; or
 - B. the Purchaser is registered for GST and the Amount payable is increased by the Vendor's GST Notice, the Purchaser may terminate this Contract immediately by serving notice on the Vendor ('Purchaser's GST Response') no later than five Business Days from service of the Vendor's GST Notice ('Response Due Date'); and
 - (iii) if:
 - A. the Purchaser is not entitled to, or does not serve a Purchaser's GST Response on the Vendor by the Response Due Date, this Contract is deemed varied in accordance with the Vendor's GST Notice; and
 - B. the Vendor's GST Notice is served on the Purchaser less than five Business Days prior to the Settlement Date, notwithstanding any other term of this Contract, the Settlement Date is deemed varied to the date 10 Business Days after service of the Vendor's GST Notice.
- (b) Subject to General Condition 20.7(a), if:
 - (i) it was agreed by the parties in the GST Conditions of Sale responses that the sale of the Property was not subject to GST, or was input taxed or GST-free; and
 - (ii) whether before or after Settlement, GST becomes subsequently payable by the Vendor in relation to this Contract for any reason other than as a consequence of the Vendor's breach of this General Condition 20,
